

RIGHTS RESPECTING SCHOOL AWARD

We are working towards becoming a Rights Respecting School. This means:

- UNICEF UK award based on principles of equality, dignity, respect, non-discrimination and participation.
- Based on the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.
- A Rights Respecting School is a community where children's rights are learned, taught, practised, respected, protected and promoted. Young people and the school community learn about children's rights by putting them into practice every day.

Our action plan to be a Rights Respecting School includes the 4 Rights Respecting School Standards:

1. Rights respecting values underpin leadership and management.
2. The whole school community learns about the Convention of the Rights of the Child
3. The school has a rights respecting ethos
4. Children and young people are empowered to become active citizens and learners.

As part of this work we are looking at celebrating the diversity of Warmley Park School, partnering with other schools across the country, exploring our rights and developing an understanding of how we can be active in supporting the rights of others.
